November 20, 2022

WELCOME! As we gather together this Thanksgiving Sunday to joyfully praise our Gracious God for all His bountiful blessings to us, may we worship Him in true Christian fellowship and grateful service.

This morning is our traditional Thanksgiving Sunday Service. This morning we have much to give thanks for.

Our Sunday School children have been collecting food and learning why it is so important to give. They will be presenting their collection during our worship service.

We also have one of our Missionaries visiting with us. Adam Croft has been working with InterVarsity Christian Fellowship for many years:

Adam started working with InterVarsity after graduating from Rhode Island College in 2009. He has worked at Rhode Island College, the University of Rhode Island and has served as the Area Ministry Director for RI and Southeast Mass overseeing staff and the ministry in the area. In December, he is transitioning roles within InterVarsity to work in media production on a national level creating compelling content to further the work of InterVarsity on campuses across the country.

We will also be celebrating Thanksgiving with a special service on Wed., Nov 23 at 7 pm. It will be a time to celebrate and praise God for all the blessings we receive.

ADVENT BEGINS

Next week, November 27 we begin our Advent season. We will light our first Advent candle on that morning, to start our journey to Bethlehem and the birth of Jesus.
